

LUKE GOGGIN REAL ESTATE

187 King Street Bendigo VIC

THIS free-standing weatherboard terrace-style home has seen a century of living and like a good wine it will continue to improve with age. The city fringe charmer has three bedrooms, a spacious lounge, central kitchen, compact bathroom and laundry plus a rear sunroom with double glass doors to a covered outdoor living area.

Located at the quiet end of King Street in a streetscape of similar vintage homes, it retains many of its period features like open fireplaces with classic timber overmantels, extra high pine ceilings and dado boards and return veranda. It offers the perfect challenge to blend the best of the past and the present but don't decide till you've seen inside, the external dimensions are deceiving. Even the block size is surprising, it easily accommodates a single carport, double garage with concrete floor and power connected plus access to railway land at the back.
