If you're looking to escape the hustle & bustle then this unique, architecturally designed home is for you. Using sustainability & artistic creativity as guiding principles, the house has been lovingly constructed from blended mediums of salvaged late 1800's brick from the original neighbouring farm-house, mud bricks, radially sawn Cyprus Pine & zinc alum cladding. Beautiful salvaged Alpine ash, Oregon & Jarrah timbers feature throughout. Internal walls are Cornish plastered & some finished with tinted limewash. Stone relief carvings & richly coloured leadlight windows add dramatic effect, yet the house blends in with the natural environment. The home includes a formal entrance, decorative arch, open plan living features a sunken lounge & vaulted ceilings. The kitchen has Jarrah timber benchtops, a built-in pantry, 6 burner gas stove & dishwasher. The generous main bedroom incorporates separate his & her walk in robes while the remaining 2
